

Mitch Minnette

Mitch Minnette is currently the CEO / President for the Nampa Chamber of Commerce and has been in that position for seven years now. Prior to the Nampa Chamber, Mitch was the Executive Director of the College of Western Idaho Foundation for five years, and prior to that he was the Director of the Boys & Girls Club of Nampa for fifteen years. Mitch loves to be involved in the community and working with others to make Nampa / Idaho the best place possible to live, work, and play.

Mitch stays busy sitting on various boards and commission in Nampa including Kiwanis, Venue Management Commission, State of Idaho Chamber Alliance, just to mention a few!

Mitch states his toughest, most importantly, and most rewarding job he has ever had or will have is being the proud father to his two beautiful daughters, Maggie age 16 and Amelia age 14. Mitch and his wife of 17 years (Rebecca) love to go camping, hiking, boating, and just hanging out with family and friends! A quote that Mitch loves to live by in his personal and professional life is- Relationships Matter!
